If the Client

so notifies the Agency, the Agency will use its reasonable endeavours to make up to four further introductions to the Client (at no further charge to the Client) of potential replacement Applicants (“Potential Replacement Applicants”) which Potential Replacement Applicants conform in all material aspects, in the Agency’s sole opinion (acting reasonably), with the requirements for an Applicant originally provided to the Agency by the Client.

Applicant placed with the Client has left; (vii) although the Engagement of the Applicant has ended, the Applicant continues to provide services to the Client other than in connection with the Engagement; (viii) the Agency has complied with its obligation to introduce Potential Replacement Applicants set out in Clause 8.1 above but the Client chooses not to engage any of such Potential Replacement Applicants.

- 8.4. If a refund is due, the Agency will refund to the account from which the Service Fee was received or such other account as the parties agree.
- 8.5. For the avoidance of doubt, the Agency shall have no further obligation to the Client to source additional replacement applicants or refund any amount of the Service Fee in the event the Client agrees to engage a Potential Replacement Applicant but that Potential Replacement Applicant fails to commence the engagement or, having so commenced, leaves at any time.
