PROJECT ACTION LONDON

The work we do as a CIC company

Working together to help other's

As a CIC company we give back all our profits to help other's less fortunate.

Profits from our childcare/parenting training will go to helping community projects with parenting classes.

Professional nanny training Common core skills

Curated for aspiring childcare professionals. Based on 6 modules, this comprehensive and in-depth course is Ofsted compliant meaning that each successful participant will be able to become Ofsted registered after receiving their certificate of attendance from PROJECT ACTION.

Ofsted registration

Communication

It is not only talking but children will listen, watch and try to copy all that others do around them so each training session will offer lots of ways to communicate with children and this module will give a guide and help.

Advanced level

Helping fussy eaters

Some were too busy exploring life to want to stop and eat, or just did not really enjoy eating food. Others had no experience of food other than what was laid in front of them. Other's behaved with food mimicing the behaviour of adults around them. We give some great tips to help children choice healthy eating. There are tasks for you to complete reinforcing your learning experience

Advanced level

Safeguarding for nannies

Being a nanny is a wonderful role to undertake and our responsibility to the children is important to understand and implement. This course looks at safeguarding, UK legislation and guides how this relates to you as a nanny.

Advanced level

Potty training

A time to train and get ready for nursery it can be stressful but we offer tips and reassurance.

Advanced level

Helping children to read

In a world of technology many reach to this rather than books to learn. Reading is important in life and each training session will offer lots of ways to learn to read with children and this module will give a guide and help.

Advanced level

Developing child independance

To provide understanding of supporting and guiding children to become independent ready to attend playgroups, nursery, or school.

Advanced level

Stimulating long term learning

An in depth higher level of helping children develop a love for life to learn. This module looks further into helping children learn and why it is important to help the brain be stimulated and set the foundations for learning throughout their childhood.
